LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Hon. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. StJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to sustain them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM L. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. F. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D.....Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guarantees a definite surrender-value to every policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued, should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainty is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the most liberal Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. Total Removal of all Restrictions on TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The insured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, and whenever, without extra premium in special cases.

2d. A loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with solidity conditions, and less than those of almost all Companies whose accommodations have secured with ours.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are limited on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. F. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company, and has been accepted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying claims.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1869.

THE RIGHT TO VOTE.

The fifteenth amendment published Tuesday, reads, "The right of the citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State, on account of race, color, or previous conditions of servitude."

Any one unacquainted with the political history of our times, or the astounding vagaries and tergiversations of our popular leaders, would very naturally suppose that the party that foisted the above amendment upon the American people was indeed the unfaltering and honest friend of the negro. He would reasonably infer that, when that party caused to be incorporated into our great national chart the solemn and unequivocal declaration that the negro "shall not be denied or abridged" "the right to vote," that it was a resultant of the most unfeigned friendship for the inferior race; as well as an indication of a purpose to place the negro in a condition in all respects equal to the white man. But he would soon find, after greater intimacy with the intricate workings of our political system and the acrobatic displays of our leaders in the political arena, that all this ostensible sympathy with, and love for, the negro and his rights, were the merest sentimental vaporing and rant, and meant nothing seriously.

In proof of this, see the action of Radicalism as to other privileges claimed by the negro. The right to vote is given; the above amendment guarantees that, but how about the right to hold office? It is not proposed that "the friend and brother" shall be President, or Congressman, or Governor. Nothing is heard of our own colored sbos' being in favor for high offices in our own State.—And so it is in all the States. The poor credulous negro may be used in advancing the selfish schemes of political emissaries and propagandists, but he is not to expect to hold office or take a front seat when political garbage is to be dispensed liberally. The balance of power is in the negro's hand, but like a simpleton, he plainly obeys what his white leader says; he votes like an automaton moved by the hands of the political juggler, and quietly takes a seat out in the dark and cold, whilst his "so-called" white ally and friend is snugly ensconced in the chimney corner of some lucrative office, to which he attained by the co operation and help of his deceived and ignorant fellow-worker. In referring to this gross and palpable injustice as well as deception, the Richmond Dispatch observes:

"Poor Sambo is entitled to the distinguished privilege of pulling chestnuts out of the fire, for the delectable titillations of Republican palates. Entitled to the right of hoeing, ploughing and seeding the politico—agricultural domain, but debarred the meagre privilege of gathering even the scrapings of the harvest. Think on it ye suffragans!—your cherished hopes of picking the juicy plums out of the political dumpling, have all withered in the blossom, and instead of the rich viands and sumptuous dessert on which you expected to regale as the honored guests of Uncle Sam's hospitality, not even the crumbs will be your allotment; but, you are fully privileged to assist in its culinary preparation, partake of its odors, and sate your appetite with the "hog and hominy" of your own raising."

And now hear ye this blast from the organ upon which Horace Greely is accustomed to play. He is the great negrophilist, the special champion of freedom—hear what he saith:

"We quite agree with The Times that negroes are likely to get precious few offices in this country, and those few generally poor ones. They are a small fraction of our people, and certain to be a less and less considerable minority with each decennial census."

Yes, the poor, deluded negroes may vote; nay, it is their inalienable right, quoth the great Radical Sanhedrim, but they shall not have offices, and, if they perchance should get offices, they must be "poor ones." "They are a small fraction of our people" says the philosopher of the Tribune; "they are certain to be a less and less minority," continues the sage of the old white hat, and therefore, they will only get a very few "poor" offices. Now we put it to any man of candor and sense, if this is not extremely mean. Because under the baleful influences at work this race is gradually vanishing, becoming each year of less numerical importance, and therefore, to be of no great value after a while in determining political contests, they are to be thrown aside as useless, and that too, by their professed friends, by those who have waged a ceaseless war against the whites of the South, and in whose name they plied fire and sword to destroy and devastate the heritage of the Southerner.

Let the negro vote, but he must not hold office. Such is the platform of Radicals; such is the declaration of Radical organ grinders. Professing eternal and inviolable friendship for the African, they really despise him in their hearts. For vile political ends they demand for him the right to vote; but in their unhallowed greed for gain, in their lust for office, in their mad rush for place and preferment, they kick the poor negro out of the way, and tell him that he must not expect to occupy a front row at the carnival, but be content with the "crumbs," the refuse, the "poor offices" of the Tribune charlatans.

The negro is dying of love. The embrace of Radicalism is squeezing him to death.—It is the embrace, however, of the anaconda as he crushes the victim of his affections in his torturous folds, and not the hearty hug of true arms that would bear up and bless. Professing to love with a passion that cannot be fathomed the black man of the South, the Radicals are but sweeping from the face of the earth a race that has been faithful under peculiar trials and temptations, and who would still thrive and increase and live in harmony with their former masters, if not tutored and controlled by unscrupulous, bad men

THE PRESS ON GRANT.

The Press generally has been exceedingly kind in its discussions of Grant's inaugural. Of course the Republican papers, and those of equivocal character, have been charitable and forbearing. But the Democratic papers of the staunchest sort have shown a disposition to take the most favorable view of the address, that was consonant with truth and common sense. The National Intelligencer has spoken in considerate and gentle terms, approving in the main the very curt and contentious production. We have seen no criticism betraying the partisan, unless we except the able articles in the New York World. That paper has donned the armor and has already entered the lists in earnest and taken more than one tilt at the late commander of the army of the United States. Its criticism upon the General's spirit of self sufficiency is pointed, and places him in striking contrast with the modesty and dividence of the earlier Presidents. Its remarks upon the rhetorical flourish—the only one, perhaps, in the entire production, viz: the one about the "strong box" and "forging the key"—of the inaugural, and that too when discussing the finances, are well taken, and the absurdity of the expectation that the Pacific Railroad—the "key," —and the gold mines—the "strong box"—would enable the government to pay off the public debt, is capitally exposed.

Our neighbor of the Biblical Recorder, (who, by the way, wields a blade of Damascan temper, but only uses it now and then,) makes some good points about the inaugural which are note worthy. It says:

"President Grant had observed an illustrious silence till the day of his inauguration. We predict that hereafter he will 'speak with tongues.' His cabinet is composed entirely of Northern men. He is not prepared to trust the South, and feels that to the victors belong the spoils. He ignores political demagogues, and, attributing his promotion to his success, he places each department in charge of a man who has quietly and honestly succeeded in a kindred occupation. A self made millionaire takes charge of the Treasury. A man who has succeeded with his own ships takes charge of the navy. An army General remains in the War office. A pliant politician whom the President can control, is Secretary of State. The inaugural address smells of the lamp, and will not be understood by a single perusal."

This, also, is to the point:

"The President who accepts all 'the responsibilities of the position without fear,' and who says 'I' eighteen times in one short speech, will have a 'policy to enforce,' and 'will fight it out' on that line. He may not follow the follies of the Presidential tailor who attempted to rehabilitate the nation with clothing cut according to fashions of his invention; his programme may not be printed on paper, but its enforcement has already commenced, and the people of both parties are responding Amen!"

The Recorder is the friend of the "poor Indian." It has been his friend for a long time. It remarks:

"The President says he 'will favor' the 'ultimate citizenship' of the Indians. We believe the Indians are honestly entitled to 'immediate citizenship' and regret the postponement of their rights."

It regrets "that the President forgot to ask the nation to pray for him, as the Scripture requires." It thinks the inaugural is a document of remarkable profundity,"—but in what its 'profundity' consists he does not intimate, unless it be in certain obscurities at which he vaguely squints. It concludes with the opinion, which may be true, that it foreshadows "an eventful administration."

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

The New York Times publishes the following:

General Dent will have control of all arrangements for visiting the President, interviews, presentations, and the general charge of the reception room—transacting the business of all callers not absolutely necessary to be sent to the President.

General Badeau will attend, as heretofore, to the opening of the correspondence.

General Babcock will have charge of all applications for and matters pertaining to appointments to office. All such applications will be promptly referred to the several departments.

General Porter will have charge of the matter of making out appointments.

Is Grant preparing for a campaign? What does he want with so many Epaulettes about him? All this savors of royalty.—Well may the World ask: "was there ever such a mournful burlesque on the simple Republican Government which the fathers of the early day transmitted to us?"

Four Generals of the Army dancing attendance upon a plain, unsophisticated Republican President! Grant is indeed a Pacha of many tails. We suppose this is the beginning of retrenchment. Or does he apprehend danger from the other end of the Avenue? Who knows?

EXPELLED FROM THE ROTUNDA

A little white boy, who sold pea nuts and apples, complains to one of our Reporter's that "Hon." Edgar Miller, Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, has removed him, and set up a stand for himself. We don't know how it is, but we think this against the new Constitution, which abolishes all distinction in color and race. The cry in the war of 1812 was "Free trade and sailors rights." The cry now is, "Not free trade but the negroes rights."

A STRAW.

The Democrats have made gains in nearly all of the town elections held in New York, comparing the vote with that cast in November in the Presidential contest. There have been large gains in sixty-four out of seventy-three towns heard from. How is this? What is its significance?

A CONTRAST.

In the Inaugural Grant recommends complete obedience to all laws. In his first message to Congress he proposes the repeal of a law more than seventy-five years old.—Reason—it was in his way.

HERO OF FINANCE.

We are informed that the Governor's "hero" of finance, the Public Treasurer, David Jenkins, in whom the Governor has "confidence," is moved to anger because of an Editorial which appeared in the Sentinel on Monday last.

Upon re reading the article we see no special cause for anger, except that comparisons are not only said to be odious, but are so in fact and in truth.

We said "Mr. Battle's experience and ability as a financier was such that the State could afford to pay him $1,000 a year for his services, and the people save millions by having Mr. Battle in the place of the present Treasurer, who is as unfit to be Treasurer, as a hen is to catch a hawk."

If the Treasurer had anything of the lofty spirit of Webster in him, he could find no cause of offence in this. Hear the golden spoken Webster in reply to Hayne: "I am not of those, Sir, who esteem any tribute of regard, whether light and occasional, or more serious and deliberate, which may be bestowed on others, as so much unjustly withholden from themselves."

Mr. Battle has been so kind, when called upon, in giving to the new Treasurer the benefit of his experience and financial knowledge, that his successor in office might bear commendation and compliment bestowed upon him, if not without envy, at least without anger. If Mr. Battle had been Treasurer, the North Carolina Railroad bonds would never have sold for 65. The sale of these bonds at 65, instead of par, was a clear loss of 63,000 dollars to the State. Mr. Battle would not have issued the $100 000 of bonds for the Penitentiary. He would have said the purchase of 8,000 acres of land to locate a Penitentiary was fraud unequaled. He would have paid the interest due on the State debt in January last. He would have borrowed it from the State Bank who kindly lent the Treasurer money to pay the interest due last October—or he might have called on the President of the North Carolina Railroad to borrow money for the Treasury.—We heard Mr. Smith say he could have borrowed that amount, and we have no doubt of it. Five hundred thousand dollars, nor a million, will not cover the loss of the State by failure to pay the interest due January last.

But, the anger of the Treasurer. We think he was angered on the wrong count, as the lawyer's say. Only nine men, on yesterday, informed us that the Treasurer, David Jenkins, and his son, with heavy bludgeons, were in search of us, to reduce us lower than he did the State and Railroad bonds. Now, Dave, don't let Governor Holden's opinions influence you in your efforts to reduce us to a level with your State bonds. You saw the Governor's estimate of us, some time ago, in the Standard, that "we were cowardly," &c. The Governor called Lincoln a foul tyrant and despot, and asked in his paper, in 1862, "who would plot for his head." Booth was foolish and wicked enough to plot for his head.

And as to those carpet-baggers, Dave, we have heard of their rejoicing for several days, over the caning we were to get from the Treasurer. Dave, don't let the carpet-baggers goad you on to break the peace.—General Grant has said, "let us have peace." Peace is the first plank in the platform of the new administration.

WEDNESDAY, March 10, 1869.

Pursuant to adjournment, the House was called to order at half past 7 o'clock.

On that motion Mr. Watson called the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained and the House refused to adjourn by a vote of yeas 13, nays 67.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting the bill constructing a Railroad through the counties of Granville, Person, Rockingham and Caswell, and asking the concurrence of the House.

Bill was placed upon the Calendar.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, the rules were suspended and the resolution reported by the Special Committee, in reference to printing the report of the State Geologist, was taken up and, on motion of Welch, postponed until a full report is made.

On motion, the House then adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, March 11, P. M.

Messrs. Cook, Galloway, Respass, Mason, and Burns, by leave, recorded their vote on the 15th amendment.

Message from the House, endorsing resolution in favor of Sheriff of Pasquotank and asking concurrence of the Senate. The resolution was concurred in.

Also, transmitting bill for the potection of planters—referred to Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. Shoffner gave notice of a bill to authorize certain persons to build a toll bridge over Haw River.

Hyman, colored, gave notice of a bill to prevent the sacrifice of property at execution sales.

Mr. Respass introduced a bill to charter a Road from Plymouth to Wilmington.—Referred.

Eppes, colored, give notice of a bill to charter a Road from Scotland Neck to Weldon.

By leave Mr. Sweet introduced a bill providing for the transfer of cases from the late criminal Court to the Superior Court, of the county of Craven. The bill, under a suspension of the rules, passed its several readings.

Galloway, colored, introduced a bill to incorporate the New Hanover Laborers and Farmer's Association.

Mr. Robbins, a bill, concerning pleas and answers, pending on old debts. [The object of the bill is to give an opportunity to plead, now that the stay law has been removed.] Referred.

Mr. Martindale: A bill to authorize the Commissioners of Martin to levy a special tax.

Mr. A. J. Jones: A bill to restore and more effectual put in force chapter 65, Revised Code. Referred.

Mr. Richardson: A bill to amend the charter of the Richmond Manufacturing Company. Referred.

Bill to amend an act concerning Registers of deeds. [Gives Registers power to issue marriage licenses.] Read third time and passed.

Bill authorizing the Board of Education to sell certain stock in the Cape Fear Navigation Company. Read third time and passed.

Message from the House, requesting the Senate to take early action on the bill to raise revenue.

Mr. Osborne said the message was not acceptable—the Senate presumes to understand its own busines, and he, therefore, moved the message be returned to the House. The message was returned.

The hour of 11 o'clock having arrived the special order, the school bill, was taken up and, on motion of Mr. Lassiter, postponed till Monday next, 11 o'clock.

The unfinished business of last night being the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Code of Civil Procedure, in regard to fees, was taken up, amended by sections.

The question recurring on the passage of the bill, its third and last reading, resulted, yeas 21, nays 8.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Bill to enable persons to take an appeal, who own less than is allowed them by the homestead act. [Provides that they may pledge their property.] Indefinitely postponed.

Bill to establish a Board of Arbitration for each County.

Quite a lively debate sprung up on this bill. Mr. Wilson opposed its passage. His people did not ask for the relief proposed by the bill.

Mr. Robbins accounted for this, from the fact, of the superabundant crop of black berries in Forsyth, by which they lived and paid their debts.

Mr. Wilson replied, that his people did not expect the State to pay their debts.

Messrs. Osborne and Murphy gave the question a grave consideration. Mr. Murphy read the proceedings of a public meeting, looking to arbitration as a means of compromising debts.

Messrs. Shoffner and Welker made some remarks in reply to Mr. Wilson, touching the blackberry question.

Mr. Barnes desired that the bill should be made to conform to the Constitution, and, until it did, he could not vote for it.

Mr. Sweet was in favor of giving relief to the people; but the bill was clearly unconstitutional, as it impaired private contracts.

Mr. A. J. Jones was opposed to passing any more laws to remain a dead letter on the statute book. He thought the bill, if passed, would prove inoperative.

Mr. Jones moved the indefinite postponement of the bill, as he believed a better plan could be perfected for the relief of the people.

Mr. Sweet moved to lay the bill on the table, which was not agreed to.

A. H. Galloway, colored, referred to the remarks of Mr. Sweet, respecting the action of the House, on a bill for the relief of the people, and thought that, if Mr. Sweet had heard what he, Galloway, had, in the house to-day, from the Representative from Wake, Harris, colored, perhaps the Senator from Craven would not speak so hopefully of the action of the other branch of the Legislature. Harris, colored, of the house, had used discourteous language in speaking of this Senate, had used damnable language—

Here considerable confusion ensued, and moderation counselled,—several members deploring that anything should have been said to mar the pleasant feeling between the two houses.

Galloway claimed the right to speak of the member of the other House, especially as he was of his own color.

The debate was further indulged in by Messrs. Osborne and A. J. Jones.

Mr. Jones withdrew his motion to postpone indefinitely, but to postpone until Tuesday next, 12 o'clock, which prevailed.

The bill in relation to Municipal elections was read 2nd. time, and made special order for to-morrow.

The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, March 10, 1869.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of Chatham, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Durham said he had been unavoidably absent when the XVth. amendment passed this House. He was surprised that such an important measure had been rushed through in such hot haste, not over a couple of hours being given for discussion. He never casted a vote with more pleasure in his life, than he now voted no, upon that infamous proposition. He thought it surrender to the Congress, the last vestage of States rights. It amounted virtually to an entire obliteration of State lines and confirmed the previous usurpation of that body. He was surprised at the course of some gentlemen in the House voting for such a measure, for to his judgment, there was more impropriety in this amendment than in the 14th article.

Mr. Durham continued for some time in giving his reasons why he opposed the measure, and concluded by asking the Clerk to record his vote in the negative upon the aforesaid constitutional amendment.

Messrs. High and Nicholson were also allowed to record their votes in the negative.

Messrs. Snipes and Williamson, colored, recorded their votes in the affirmative.

Mr. Hinnant from the Committee on Enrolment, reported several bills as being correctly enrolled.

Mr. Seymour from the Committee on Judiciary, reported several bills which were placed upon the Calendar and will be noticed when they come up.

Mr. Matheson, from the Committee on Corporations, reported several bills which were placed upon the Calendar.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Estes offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, it is manifestly evident that the necessities of the State demand the immediate passage of the Revenue bill by this General Assembly, and, Whereas, said bill has been before the Senate of this General Assembly for upward of two weeks without action. Therefore be it resolved, That a message be sent to the Senate, requesting them to take up and act upon the Revenue bill at once.

Mr. Estes spoke for some time in support of his resolution. He said that some Senators openly declared that the revenue bill would not pass that body until certain other measures had been perfected.

After some debate the resolution was adopted under a suspension of the rules and the message accordingly sent to the Senate to that effect.

By Mr. Sinclair: A resolution expressing great confidence in President Grant and instructing our Representatives in Congress to vote for a repeal of the "tenure of office act," &c.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules were suspended, and the resolution considered at once.

Pending any definite action upon the resolution, the following message was received from the Senate in reference to Mr. Estes' resolution in regard to the revenue:

Mr. Speaker, the Senate orders that the message received this morning from Mr. John H. Bonner, Clerk of the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that he was instructed to send a message to the Senate, requesting that body to take early action upon the bill to raise revenue, be returned to the House of Representatives.

T. A. BYRNES, Sec.

The hour having arrived for the consideration of the special order, to-wit:

The report of the Special Committee on relief.

Mr. Bowman, Chairman of the Committee reported a substitute for the bill to regulate pleadings in certain cases, and asked time to consider the other two bills previously submitted.

Mr. Malone, of the Committee, objecting to the substitute submitted a minority report recommending original bill with proviso.

Mr. Malone continued for some time in opposition to the majority report of the Committee.

Mr. Estes argued in opposition to the report. He thought it offered a premium to fraud and rascality, &c.

Mr. Welch moved to print the bill and make it the special order for to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Estes favored the motion to print.

Mr. Bowman took the floor in defence of the report of the Committee.

Mr. Vest favored the motion to print and postpone until to-morrow as the members did not properly understand the bill, &c.

Mr. Ingram opposed the motion to postpone for three reasons. First, the House was just as well prepared to vote now upon the bill as at any time. Secondly, the people needed relief now and should have it without delay. Thirdly, the delay would amount to nothing but a useless consumption of time.

Mr. Jarvis hoped all these motions to postpone would be voted down as they were merely made to ultimately defeat the bill.

Mr. Pou opposed the motion to postpone.

Mr. Welch said that charges were made that he wished to kill the bill by moving to postpone twenty-four hours. He only wish to have time to give the bill that careful consideration that its great importance demanded.

He expected to support the bill, but wished time to examine and look into it &c.

Mr. Durham said while he would vote for any judicious relief measure as to old debts, he would never vote for a bill like this that clogged the Courts and tended to impair the business energies of the country, he would vote for relief as regards old debts but would never support a bill that as this does, stays debts contracted since the war and debts hereafter to be contracted: actions in last ejectments &c. The whole thing was unconstitutional, and he did not see how any one could, consistently with their oaths to maintain the Constitution, support such a bill.

Mr. Argo in remarks of some length opposed the motion to postpone.

After some further debate the House refused to adopt the motion to postpone and print by a vote of yeas 42, nays 49.

The question recurred upon the bill reported by the majority of the Committee.

[The call repeals that portion of the Code of Civil Proceedure which makes writs returnable before the Clerks, but makes them returnable to the regular terms of the Court. The bill makes all suits both in debts and actions, ex delicto subject to a continuance from Court to Court on the application of the defendant. It proposes to prohibit the trial of cases in the Court except by the consent of parties. The bill further provides that it shall expire on the 1st day of January 1871.]

When Mr. Malone offered the following proviso:

"That this act shall not apply to actions of debts contracted since the 1st day of May, 1865, nor to any action now pending or hereafter to be brought arising in action ex delicto."

Mr. Malone favored the bill of the majority so far as it relates to the return of summons to the regular terms of the Court, &c. If the above proviso was incorporated into the bill he would support it, if not he would oppose it.

Mr. Forkner moved to lay the whole matter on the table.

The yeas and nays were had and the House refused to adopt the motion by the following ballot:

AYES.—Messrs. Carson, Carey, colored, Cawthorn, colored, Davis, Dixon, Estes, Forkner, Foster, Gahagan, Hayes, colored, Parker, Rea, Renfrow, Seymour, Smith of Martin, Snipes, Stevens, Sweet, colored, Thompson, Vest, Williamson, colored, and Wiswall—22.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allison, Ames, Argo, Armstrong, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Blair, Boddie, Bowman, Candler, Clayton, Crawford, colored, Downing, Durham, Ellis, Farrow, Ferebee, Franklin, Gibson, Graham, Grier, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, colored, Hawkins, Hendricks, Hicks, Hilliard, High, Hinnant, Hodnett, Hoffman, Humphries, Ingram, Jarvis, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Leary, colored, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Malone, Mayo, colored, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Moore, of Chowan, Nicholson, Painter, Peck, Pou, Price, colored, Proffitt, Ragland, Robbins, colored, Robinson, Reynolds, Shaver, Siegrist, Sinclair, Simonds, Stanton, Vestal, Welch, Whitley, Wilkie, and Wilson—72.

Mr. Smith, of Martin, characterized the whole matter as a most dishonest measure, teeming with the greatest rascality.

Pending any definite action, the House adjourned until to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock.

The ladies of the harem of the Viceroy of Egypt, it is said, are hereafter to enjoy the freedom of the streets.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SYNOPSIS OF STATEMENT FOR 1868, OF THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Income from Premiums,	$7 161,304 11
Income from Interest,	1,384,262 48
Total Income for the year,	8,745,566 59
Losses paid,	1 271,896 00
Dividends paid,	596,284 00
Total Losses paid to date,	6,060,883 00
Total Dividends paid to date,	2,197,3 8 00

It will be seen from the above that the INCOME FROM INTEREST ALONE greatly exceeds the losses, and that the TOTAL INCOME FOR ONE YEAR is more than the TOTAL LOSSES PAID TO DATE.

The Assets of the Company are now over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, and with its IMMENSE INCOME offers greater inducements to those insuring than any other Company in the country. In addition to the part-credit system of premiums with dividends annually payable after four years, it issues Policies upon a reduced all-cash premium, with immediate ANNUAL DIVIDENDS. It can be plainly seen that the Connecticut Mutual Life has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years, it does not deem it necessary to make grand promises of what they INTEND doing, but will insure persons on any plan most desirable, and if not taken all its policies non-forfeitable, for a stated amount, after two or three payments. Also remember, this Company has $154 Assets accurately invested, for every $100 of its Liabilities.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1869.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co's. Spring Trade Circular.

Celebrated brands of tobacco for sale by W. C. Stronach & Co.

"What is Baptism?" for sale by the author.

Auction sales, Saturday next, 13th inst, by Jas. M. Towles, Auctioneer.

NEW YORK MARKET.

GROCERIES.—Coffee a shade lower. Sugars and Molasses have declined, the latter some five cents per gallon.

TOBACCO—The market is more active. For common and medium leaf 7½ to 14 cents. Manufactured, prices unchanged. Our telegraphic news furnish the price of cotton. There has been a decline, but holders are confident of better prices.

Southern merchants are buying more freely in the Dry Goods market than Western, and are paying cash as they go.

EXPLANATION.—This paper bears the same date as the last. This is necessary, as we have changed the Sentinel from a morning to an evening paper. The matter in this issue is entirely new.

MESSRS. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.—This strickly first class house is receiving a large, varied and elegant assortment of goods, at their superb store on Fayetteville street. This firm has been doing a very large and growing business. Their stock is so well selected and so extensive, that they are prepared to offer excellent inducements to country merchants, who, if they consult their interest, will not give Raleigh the "go by," but will examine the Messrs. Tucker's stock before going farther North. Retail buyers will find everything they desire at the lowest cash rates. Attentive salesmen are always present to wait upon purchasers.

LONG AND SHORT SPEECHES.—The fashion of making the shortest speeches imaginable has been introduced. Of course all will follow. Grant's proverbial brevity and Colfax's very short affair on the occasion of taking the chair as President of the U. S. Senate, will be copied, (it is to be hoped,) by all flatulent Radicals. If this is done retrenchment (as promised in the Inaugural) will have commenced. The Rads in our Legislature will please "make a note on it."

"MOSS ROSE."—We were presented yesterday with a bag of this choice brand of tobacco. We have given it a trial and find it capital. We are indebted to Mr. W. Alcott, of Factory No. 3, Va., for this fragrant smoking weed.

BILL PASSED.—The bill chartering Railroad from Henderson, Granville county, to Mt. Airy, in Surry county, passed the Senate yesterday. It is understood that it will pass the House also. The bill appropriates $3,000,000, and is so framed as to avoid the objections urged by the Supreme Court against the former bill.

SORGHUM SUGAR.—The Louisville Democrat gives some interesting facts connected with the manufacture of sugar and syrup from the Sorghum cane. With very little extra cost, improved machinery has been provided, by which molasses, syrup and sugar of the finest quality, and equal to that made by the best refineries, are manufactured.

The Democrat says that, the Louisville Sorgo Company is now manufacturing sugar and syrup of the choicest quality, the latter bringing readily 80 cents per gallon. Their best sugar is equal in every respect, in color, brightness and sweetness to the best refined "A" sugar ever made. This sugar can be manufactured at 7 cents per pound, about one-third cost of the imported article.

An acre will readily produce 900 pounds of sugar, or 150 gallons of syrup. It says, at "one third the present rates of sugar and molasses a crop of sorghum would be more profitable to the farmer than corn or other grain, and at far less labor."

Let our farmers look into this matter.—Mr. W. F. Beasley, whose address is Greensboro', N. C., will furnish all the necessary information.

PERSONAL.

DEATH OF A VETERAN SOLDIER.—Michael Meisell, who was born in the kingdom of Bavaria, February 22, 1790, died at the almshouse of Washington county, Md., on the 1st of March, at the advanced age of seventy nine years. The deceased was a soldier under Napoleon Bonaparte during his memorable campaign against Russia, when the city of Moscow was burned. He was present and witnessed the magnificent sight of that burning city, and also shared in the sufferings that followed, in which Napoleon's army was almost entirely destroyed by the severity of a Russian winter. Boonsboro' Odd Fellow.

Andrew Braker, a wealthy young farmer of Erie county, Pa., committed suicide last Wednesday. He was enamored of a young lady in the vicinity, who looked upon his suit coldly.

We are authorized to state, on the best authority, that Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, was offered any one of three positions in the Cabinet, by President Grant.—Washington Republican.

Mr. Longfellow was still in Rome at the last accounts, but would soon leave for Sicily. He will not return to America until next August.

George W. Bazin is a Boston printer who has worked sixty years at the case, and is still at it.

Rose Hawthorne, the youngest daughter of the novelist, is studying painting at Dresden. She has talent, it is said.

Charles Reade contemplates the erection of a London theatre, in which the Reade drama only will be performed.

Henry Clay was recently arrested in New York for keeping a bogus lottery office. How have the mighty fallen.

Rev. N. F. Reid, D.D., will preach the annual sermon to the Graduating Class at Emory and Henry College, in June next.

Andrew Johnson's name for Governor already appears at the head of five Tennessee papers.

DAIRY.—Two gentlemen from Washington, N. C., are about to establish a regular dairy on the "Clark place" some four miles from this city. Gold was known to exist in North Carolina long before the present century, and up to the year 1827 all the native gold furnished to the United States mint came from this State. The largest nugget ever found in the world was found in Cabarrus county, in the year 1803 weighing twenty eight pounds of pure gold. North Carolina gold is very fine, and especially all cited by jewelers, dentists and other artificers, for its superiority in working.

FIRE.—We regret to learn that the dwelling house and all the out buildings on the premises of Mr. Robert Kincaid, ten miles from this place, were destroyed by fire on last Saturday. Mr. Kincaid was unable to save anything except his corn. His loss included about 2,000 pounds of bacon.—The fire was accidental.—Morganton Press.

The smoke house of Mr. Edward Chappell, residing seven miles from Raleigh on the Oxford Road, was broken open on Monday night last and all his bacon stolen. No clue to the thief has been discovered.

T. J. Davis, of Wake, was arrested on Monday last for manufacturing tobacco without complying with the U. S. Revenue Law.

Andrew Chappell, of Granville, was arrested on Tuesday last for violating the Internal Revenue Law as to peddling of tobacco.

It was an aggravated case.—But Mrs. Choptanks asked to be heard, and she said that little Choppy "didn't dare give her any of his sass in his talk; but he abused her in his prayers, and on this occasion he was on his knees, with a crowd about the door, gathered there by his 'hollerin'" and 'a callin' on the Lord to forgive this black hearted woman; make her tell the truth, O Lord,' he hollered, 'and make her quit gaddin' about and lyin' to the neighbors,' and I couldn't stand it, and just took him a swipe with the flat of the shovel, and I'd do it again."

For the Sentinel.

EDITOR SENTINEL.—You are misinformed as to the facts that appeared in the Daily Sentinel, of the 8th inst., in regard to the bids put in for the building of the Market House.

All the bidders, with the exception of Mr. Briggs, fully understood that a reasonable price was to be paid for both buildings, but Mr. Briggs claimed that when he put in his bid, that he included in it the aforesaid buildings, which, by allowing that, and deducting that from the other bids, would make them all equal.

The specifications positively state that the material of the old building shall be used by the contractor, as far as practicable, in the erection of the New Market House; the clause cannot, by any tergiversation whatever, be interpreted as donating the old building to the contractor.

The officious individual, who reported to you, and to others the intended robbery of the city, to the amount of $8,000, was invited to the act by parties who were well aware they were acting a false role, as they were entirely cognizant that specious misrepresentations would be made, and every advantage taken to heap odium on the Board of City Commissioners.

The Board are resolved to award the contract to a practical mechanic, who is master of his trade, and one fully competent to erect an edifice that shall be as durable as ornamental; and in so doing they consider that they will completely protect the City's interest, and guarantee for themselves the endorsement of the tax payers.

S. D. HARRISON,
C. M. FERRIS,
JOS. T. BACKALAN.

Raleigh, March 9th, 1869.

For the Sentinel.

About the last of January, 1869, Thomas Bailey, a quiet citizen of Wake, found three several warrants at his house, in favor of B. Y. Rogers, purporting to have been executed by one A. G. Pollard, Constable; one of these was for fifty dollars at interest from 19th of March, 1867, subject to a credit of thirty one dollars and fifty cents; one 6th 1868, a just claim which said Bailey paid off between the next morning at John Pollard's with costs; warrant No. 2 vs Thos. Bailey, was based on a note for fifty dollars at interest from July 14, '65, signed by Thomas Hicks, this Bailey respectfully declined paying. Both these warrants were returnable at the store of B. Y. Rogers, the Plaintiff, at 9 o'clock, A. M., the 6th of February; warrant No. 3, vs. Ransom Thompson Thomas Bailey (a singularly long, euphonious name) requiring his appearance before Joseph L. Moring at B. Y Rogers' store, the 25th day of February, 1869, at 9 o'clock, A. M.; upon this warrant or rather upon the note in the absence of the warrant, the party warranted and his witnesses said Moring proceeded to give judgment and order execution on the 6th of Feb., 19 days before the day set by the officer for trial, his attention and the plaintiff's too having been specially called to that fact. The principal defendant waiving all informality as to the long name or combination of names, quit his business as a good loyal subject should do, as also his witness and proceeded to the place of the court, when, lo! he found neither court, constable, jury nor Plaintiff. Thus matters rested until about the 2nd of March, when said A. G. Pollard, constable, having called on said Bailey, (whose name he had so singularly blended with Thompson's) on other business; Bailey enquired about the other matter, and the officer replied that they had taken judgment and execution 19 days before the time named by himself, and Bailey said that wouldn't do; the officer suggested another trial the following Saturday, 6th of March, as if any trial had been; and without any warrant therefor or summoning any witness, proceeded at some subsequent time, probably after ten o'clock on the 6th of March in the presence of the said Jos. L. Moring, to fill out a warrant and endorse thereon, executed the 1st of March, '69, said paper writing having never been seen by Bailey until 11 o'clock, Saturday morning, the 6th of March, and never was seen by Ransom Thompson at all, nor any summons delivered to any witness. This wonderful production of only a few moments existence, when called for, was found after a long and rigid search; where would you suppose? I am sure no one would guess, so I will tell you at once and relieve your anxiety: it was in this worthy Magistrate's docket book, and in all probability had not parted company with it for one single moment; which, if true, this worthy creature of our beloved Governor must have known; yet in the face of all these facts confirming his judgment of the 6th of Feb., thus fixing the costs of two judgments and executions on the defendants who have neither been present nor summoned to be present, as they think.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN,
Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,
$1,000,000,
PAID IN FULL.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its large capital, low rates of Premiums, and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-holder.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood, to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an ANNUAL INCOME equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The organization of this Company on the LOW RATE, CASH PLAN, with new features and unequaled security, has evoked the most remarkable opposition from other and rival Companies. By means, fair and unfair, they have sought to injure the new system, and have attacked it with a degree of virulence unknown in the history of Life Insurance.

We have settled with the immense sums of money paid Insurance and other journals, to try and check the rapid progress of the National, an unsuccessful motion was made in Congress to repeal its charter, all of which but accelerated its speed for since then, the largest policies issued has been to members of Congress, whose attention has been thus attracted to its unsurpassed advantages. In the face of this opposition, the work of the Company has gone steadily forward, and this with no little satisfaction that the GENERAL AGENTS are able to state that the business to date is far in advance of anything hitherto accomplished.

In Six Months 3,000 Policies have Been Issued.

INSURING, IN ROUND NUMBERS,

$10,000,000.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives, or increasing the amount of insurance they already have is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Co.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES

WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, rotary and self-operating recommended. It can be used on any stove in Raleigh, being small, and the Low Price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

As the rods with steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, passing upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all stained, fresh and mildew spots to the non-existent. For economy in all purposes, as it stops and lets loose as in the progress of rinsing and pressing.

The time required for cleaning a boiler full of clothes is twenty to forty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling soap are forced through the boiler, thoroughly cleansing and whitening the clothes WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing removes the soapsuds.

Washing day will be changed to a restful and pleasant occupation. The cost of the Boiler will soon be realized in the SAVING OF SOAP, LABOR, and the gross saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany the introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

As invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at Leonard & Mitchell's, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the rise—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some contrasting the trade—&c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let me tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! $5 SAVED OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
